

Final Matters Before Releasing the Jury to Deliberate Checklist<sup>1</sup>

---

- Review the verdict form with jurors; inquire if they have any questions regarding the form or the instructions they received. MCR 2.513\(N\)\(2\).
- Inquire if the parties and counsel are satisfied with the jury instructions. People v Kowalski, 489 Mich 488, 504-505 (2011).
- Unless it is otherwise agreed to, allow the alternate(s) to deliberate, have the clerk draw to select the alternate(s); thank the alternate(s) and instruct that they may not discuss the case until the jury is discharged. MCR 2.511\(B\).
- Swear in the bailiff/clerk to safekeep the jurors during deliberations.
- Release the jury to deliberate with a written copy of the final instructions. MCR 2.513\(N\)\(3\).

---

<sup>1</sup> For more detailed information on this topic, see the Michigan Judicial Institute's Civil Proceedings Benchbook, Chapter 7.

